

National Institute for Learning Outcomes Assessment

The National Institute for Learning Outcomes Assessment (NILOA) is asking senior academic officers at every accredited two- and four-year college and university in the US about their campus assessment practices. Please complete this short questionnaire about the kinds of tools and approaches your institution is using to assess student learning. We very much appreciate your help.

Student learning outcomes include general and specialized knowledge, skills, abilities, dispositions, and values that result from a program of study.

1 Does your institution have a common set of student learning outcomes that applies to ALL undergraduate students?

- Yes No

2 Have specific departments, schools, or majors at your institution spelled out intended learning goals or outcomes applicable to their own students?

- Yes, ALL departments/schools have defined field-specific learning outcomes
 Yes, SELECTED departments/schools have defined field-specific learning outcomes
 No, individual departments/schools do not specify their own learning outcomes

3 To what extent does your institution use the following approaches to assess undergraduate student learning outcomes? (Mark all that apply)

	Not used ▼	Used by individual departments or units but not to represent the whole institution ▼	Used with valid samples to represent the whole institution ▼

6 Does your institution have a person or unit charged with coordinating or implementing student learning outcomes assessment campus-wide?

Yes No

If "yes," how many FTE are assigned to this unit?

7 How will the current economic crisis affect your institution's efforts to assess student learning outcomes in the next 12 months? (Mark one response)

- No effect
- Institutional support for assessment may be increased
- Institutional support for assessment may be reduced
- Institutional support for assessment may be eliminated
- Unsure about level of institutional support for assessment

8 What would be most helpful to your institution to effectively assess student learning outcomes? (Mark no more than three of the following)

- Greater faculty engagement
- Stronger support from the president and/or governing board
- Better tests or measures of student learning outcomes
- More information about policies and practices at other institutions
- More information about assessment tools and approaches
- Greater faculty or staff expertise in assessment methodology
- More financial resources (e.g., staff, budget)
- Other, if applicable (briefly describe):

- 9 If you wish, feel free to nominate up to three people or units at your institution that are doing good work in assessing student learning outcomes and have evidence about how the changes made have affected student learning. We would like to contact them to explain this project and obtain information about what they are doing. Please provide as much information as is conveniently possible.
